DAILY SENTINEL.

WM. E. PELL, PROPRIETOR.

From the New York World.

THE ISSUE JOINED.

The Republican party is planting itself squarely upon the wholesale negro suffrage issue, and upon that issue will contest the next Presidential election. In every authoritative way its leaders and public bodies are giving the rank and file to understand that their conduct in ravishing from the States their control of suffrage, in denying it largely to Southern white men, and in conferring it by act of Congress, in the wholesale, upon ignorant and dependent negroes, is to be adhered to, defended and upheld.

Retreat from that position, to which their acts have steadily committed them, would have been dangerous, perhaps fatal, to their party supremacy. They have deliberately chosen to stand fast rather than retreat; to run the risk of losing some Northern States, with the hope of retaining others where their majority is now largest, and with the certainty of counting the votes of the ten negro States in the Electoral College. Nothing less than a control of the suffrage thus usurped and thus bestowed en masse upon the Southern negroes, could give them the hope, much less the certainty, of so counting the votes of the ten negro States.

This certainty they are making doubly sure. In the first place, the House of Representatives, in a strict party division, passed, by a unanimous Republican vote, the resolution of Mr. Benjamin, of Missouri, keying up the party to this extreme pitch, and declaring its intention to recede not one inch.

In the second place, the House of Representatives passed the resolution reported by Thad. Stevens from the Reconstruction Committee, abolishing that clause in the old Reconstruction act which requires the ballots of at least half the registered voters in any State to be cast in order to give validity to their acceptance or rejection of the hodge-podge constitutions now cooking. The abolition of this clause, which the Senate will doubtless speedily join the House in effecting, makes it impossible for the whites of the South, by refusing to vote, to defeat the negro constitutions. Ten negroes in each State, a hundred negroes in all, provided ninety-nine only were to oppose them, can adopt these constitutions, can present them for acceptance to Congress, whose action is no ways doubtful, can thus not merely dispose of eight millions of practically disfranchised whites, but can also, unless near ly the whole north is solidly united against them, impose a President, a government, and a governmental policy upon thirty millions of American freemen.

Every day, in some way or other, this position of the Republican party, this its desperate purpose to degrade a government rather than not administer it, to ruin the country rather than not rule it, is explicitly and openly re-affirmed. Now it is a conversation of Thad. Stevens, now it is a speech of Senator Wilson of Massachusetts, now it is a declaration of "Conservative" John Sherman, Senator from Ohio, which holds the party stiffly up to this issue;—suffrage ravished by Congress from States the rightful distributors of it, denied largely to white Southerners and imposed by wholesale upon stolid blacks, thousands of whom forget the very names under which they were registered, and are in blank ignorance of the use and purpose of the ballot-box to which they are marched in gibbering platoons.

The latest reaffirmation of the purpose of the Republican party is contained in the letter of their favorite, Mr. Speaker Colfax, to the notorious Freedmen's Bureau man, Conway. "You need not fear that Congress will take any backward steps in reconstruction," he says. "We have staked our political existence on the principle that the States lately in rebellion SHALL be reorganized on the enduring corner, stones," etc, ad nauseam. I would not modify the terms of reconstruction, in any essential feature, a hair's breadth." To this final modification, however, for the sake of the electoral votes of the ten negro States made sure, Speaker Colfax has consented. But it is no essential feature that is changed, let it be granted, for the whole contrivance, from the first letter to this last, is an organized machine of military despotism, un-Republican, cruel, and infamous in every part.

It is entirely possible, of course; it is even probable, that the Republicans in Convention at Chicago in May, remembering this November's elections, will omit to affirm in their platform what they have organized in their policy; it is probable that they will still further seek to retain the votes of their discontended adherents by nominating a quasi-Conservative candidate, who has only tolerated and not shared in the shameful partisan legislation now enacting to keep Republicans in power.

But the issue cannot be changed by any political cunning. The law will have been enacted which they will then omit to obtrude. The infamy will be going on from which they will seek to divert the public gaze. Their candidate himself will be elected, if at all, by the very votes of the negroes thus endowed with authority over the destinies of the Northern people. The issue joined now cannot be obscured then.—That was possible in 1866. The elections of 1867 show that it will not be possible in 1868.

And now we undertake to say that upon this issue candidates, whatever their title to public estimation upon other grounds, whatever their past services or their present popularity, upon this most momentous issue candidates will be of small importance. The most renowned, the most honored of American citizens, under this flag would be shot down by the ballots of his countrymen with as little hesitation as they would fell the most despised. Chase or Grant would fare no better than Butler or Stanton; for, with the people, nothing is suffered to stand in the way of the good of the country; all else is trivial beside that.

Assuredly the Republican party has taken up the strongest of the strategical positions open to it for its defence in the contest of 1868. In any other its defeat would have been inevitable. Their hereditary lack of faith in the single mindedness and intelligence of the people has blinded the Republican leaders to the fact that in this position defeat, equality inevitable, will besides be overwhelming.

It is said that an African Tiger has been prowling around Richmond, for some weeks past, playing the very "deuce" with the per diem and mileage of the Ethiopan members of the Convention.

RAILROADS.

IMPORTANT TO CAROLINA SHIPPERS.

THE NEW
Baltimore and Carolina Grand Trunk
FREIGHT LINE,
VIA PETERSBURG, Va.,
Comprising the following great Freight Routes:
THE POWHATAN
Steamboat Company's Freight Line of Steamers,
PETERSBURG AND WELDON,
RALEIGH AND GASTON,
NORTH CAROLINA,
WESTERN NORTH CAROLINA,
WILMINGTON AND WELDON,
ATLANTIC AND NORTH CAROLINA,
WILMINGTON AND MANCHESTER,
CHARLOTTE AND SOUTH CAROLINA R. R.,
And their connections.

Time Quick and Rates Low.

THIS NEW TRUNK LINE FORMS A GREAT FREIGHT ROUTE between Baltimore and Weldon, Warrenton, Raleigh, Hillsboro', Lexington, Salisbury, Morganton, Charlotte, Lincolnton, Goldsboro', Newbern, Beaufort, Wilmington, Chesterville, Winnsboro', Columbia, Sumterville, Manchester, and all intermediate points on and near these great Railways and their connections.

The Powhatan Steamers connect at Petersburg with Petersburg Railway for all points in the Carolinas. Cars are run alongside of Steamers' Wharf and goods transferred with careful handling. Cars are run through without breaking bulk between Petersburg and Raleigh. Charlotte, Goldsboro', Wilmington, &c., &c. This Inland Line possesses many advantages over a SEA Route. Marine risk is small and insurance is comparatively nothing. The Wharf of the Powhatan Steamers being situated in the very centre of the great shipping district of Baltimore, renders it convenient to shippers, and drayage is very small.

Great attention paid to consignments of Cotton, Corn, Wheat, Rosin, &c. &c. All produce forwarded at the lowest possible rates.

☞ To insure transportation over this Inland Fast Line, mark all goods, whether Northward or Southward bound, "VIA PETERSBURG."

☞ Freight landed in Baltimore day following delivery to the Steamers.

Through Receipts are given and fixed rate per 100 pounds guaranteed both ways

☞ Rates in every case same as via Bay Line and Portsmouth to and from Baltimore, Philadelphia and New York.

N B.—With regard to last named points, freight is forwarded to and from Petersburg by Philadelphia and N. Y. Steamers.

For rates and all further information, apply to any Freight Agent on the Line, or at the

RECONSTRUCTION—WHAT IS THE POINT?

The Radical Convention will soon be called to make a Constitution for the State of North Carolina—a State older than the Constitution of the United States—older than the old Confederation itself—older than many persons now living in the Union. A State, which has had a Constitution, and has been acknowledged as a sovereign State, for more than 90 years, by an order of Congress is called upon, not to amend her Constitution, (which Constitution has been recognized by all the State governments of the Union, by the old Confederation and by the government of the United States, in all her branches, for ninety years, to be a Republican Constitution and government,) but is required to form a Constitution, as if she were not now, or never had been, a State! The idea is too sober a one, to be set down as a preposterous, a ridiculous one! It is a degrading, a humiliating one, to be required of, or to be submitted to by, a great people.

The people of North Carolina, who made the State and who formed her Constitution, do not desire a new Constitution. Whatever was in her Constitution repugnant to the Constitution of the United States, they have expunged. Her people acknowledge no Constitution but that which they had in 1860, with the simple addition of the abolition of slavery. Left to a free and unbiased choice, they would have no other. If another is forced upon her people, it will be without their consent. It will not be the Constitution of a free State and a free people.

Congress, in its plenitude of power, orders the people of North Carolina not to amend their Constitution, but to form one. For what? Are we required to become a new State? Yes. That is the meaning of it. The requisition is made in order to our reconstruction or reception into the Union. But we are already in the Union. We have never been out of the Union. Congress has so declared—the President has so declared, and the Supreme Court has so declared.—The Union has established its offices of custom, its offices of internal revenue, its Federal Courts in the State. The laws and Constitution of the United States are as fully enforced in this State as in any other. We pay our taxes and render the same obedience to the government that is rendered by any other State. All the laws passed by Congress, either during the war or since the war, in all particulars, (except in those extraordinary laws pertaining to reconstruction,) fully recognize North Carolina to be a State in the Union, as much so as any other State. The simple difference is, Congress has not received our Senators and Representatives. And yet Congress requires a new Constitution, a new State, and a new people for North Carolina, before it will recognize us.

Suppose North Carolina assents to the blotting out of its old Statehood—its old history, and the new people, which Congress has made, form a new State, and a new Constitution and government, with its old people denuded of their rights and franchises,—and suppose all this should be sanctioned by the government in all its departments? Suppose the Supreme Court were to pronounce the whole thing valid in law, will not this work, in spite of any subsequent acts of the State or of the Congress, a total annihilation of the entire indebtedness of the people, and of the State? Will not this totally obliterate the obligations of the old State and the old people? We ask our learned men in the law, to answer this.

But what is the real point with the Radical party in this matter of reconstruction. Is it really to restore the Union? Not at all. Is it to secure rights and immunities to Union men? Not at all. All these are already secured. Is it to guarantee freedom to the former slave population of the South? By no means. This has already been done. What then is the real object of the Radical congress? It is simply to secure the South to the Radical party.

But, to do this, that party is utterly oblivious of and apparently indifferent to the direful consequences which must result to the Southern States. We, as in duty bound, warn the people of North Carolina of those consequences. Radical reconstruction, as proposed, will infallibly produce the following results:

1. It will destroy the culture of cotton in the South, as a leading and chief article of export and commerce. This is a legitimate consequence of negro equality in the South. It will give to Europe a monopoly of the cotton culture,—thus destroying this great means of exchange and commerce between Europe and the United States—making American cotton manufacturers dependent upon Europe for cotton, and obliging Southern planters to become competitors of the Northern planter in wheat, pork, cattle, and stock-raising, hay, &c.

2. It proposes to give the negro the control of the ballot box in the South, by disfranchising the white people,—thus throwing entirely in the hands of the negro race the control of the offices of the State, the control of the Courts and of the jury box, as well as our financial, educational and social interests.

3. Such a state of things must entail upon our white people either perpetual submission to its results, which will promote miscegenation, on the one hand, or perpetual conflict, on the other, till one or the other, or both, of the races are extinct.

Now we ask, in all soberness, is there a native white man in the State, who will dare to risk such consequences, by aiding to bring them about? Is there a respectable, sensible colored man in the State, who desires such a result, and who will aid in its accomplishment? Let the white people and the respectable colored people ponder this matter, ere they plunge into the gulf whence there is no escape.

WHAT IT WILL SAY!

When the present condition of things shall pass away, and be succeeded, as it surely must, by a calmer and a better era, the pen of impartial history will have that to record which will crimson, with indignation and shame, the cheek of every friend of humanity and every lover of constitutional liberty. It will have to tell how a brave people laid down their arms, and were promised, upon the fulfilment of certain conditions, the restoration of their former rights and privileges; and how, when those conditions were faithfully performed, the pledge was flagrantly and perfidiously violated.—It will have to tell how the Congress of the United States usurped all the powers of the government, and sought, in defiance of law, Constitution, and the instincts of race and nature, to legislate an ignorant and semi-barbarous race into supremacy over Anglo-Saxon manhood, for the sake of party ascendancy and political gain. It will have to tell of military satrapies, hostile to the genius of Republican institutions, erected over a law-abiding and liberty-loving people, in a time of peace, and administered, in many instances, with a harshness, rigor and absolutism that have rarely prevailed in those governments of the old world, which are sustained only by the power of the sword and have not their protection and safe-guard in the confidence and affections of the people.

It is upon this latter point that History will have most to disclose of that which is not already known to the world. The usurpations of the party in power are committed in the full light of day,—their glaring infractions of the Constitutions are not only potent, but confessed and justified,—their outrages upon the rights of freemen are as brazen as they are atrocious,—but the interior details of the military governments are not so generally known beyond the immediate sphere of their operation. It is the most terrible and signal illustration of their arbitrary character, that men have been afraid to speak of them except in a bated breath, for fear of the consequences; and, consequently, the country at large really knows but little of what has been done and what has been left undone. Only the victims know. These things, however, will all come out some day. When the pen shall be unshackled, the tongue unloosed, the fetters of criticism unbound, the manacles of free opinion removed, then will be unfolded a tale that shall exceed aught that the people have yet heard or conceived.

When the record is made up, those who have abused their powers and prostituted their authority will stand before the world in all their deformity; while those who have tempered their rule with discretion and humanity, who have not considered that the accidence of epauletted sway was the obliteration of all the old landmarks, who respected civil law and only unsheathed the sword for its vindication, will occupy a higher stand, for the virtue which could resist the seductions of unlimited power. There are some of the latter,—there are many of the former class.

THE EDITOR OF the New York Herald speaks of having seen a private letter from Gen. Ord, in which he says that "the condition of affairs in the cotton States calls for the immediate attention of Congress; that a famine is already upon the negroes; that in many counties in his district the planters are removing their families from fear; that the whites are abandoning the rich cotton sections, where the blacks are largely in the majority; that these blacks having nothing, or next to nothing, of their own, are living on the property of others and on what they can shoot in the woods or catch in the rivers or creeks; that he is daily in receipt of petitions for protection from towns and villages; that in Mississippi it is not a question of votes, but bread; that if Congress will employ these idle and destitute negroes and feed them for their work on the river levees, broken and destroyed during the war, or on railroads, canals, anything, a war of races may be prevented. He says, in effect, that in the cotton districts, with the failure of the staple as a compensating product, there are more negroes than can be sustained, and that something must be done for them."

A DESPATCH from Washington says: "The time to which the collection of the direct tax in the Southern States was delayed, expires on January 1st., but Secretary McCulloch, in answer to appeals from the South to protect them from taxation, has responded that he does not intend to collect it unless forced to do so by Congress, and that he will appoint no collectors for that purpose. It is said to be doubtful if he is able to get Congress to grant any further extension, as all the Northern States have already paid up their full quota."

Within a day or two past there has also been in session here a State educational convention, which was addressed at one time during its session by Dr. Sears, the agent, South, of the Peabody Fund. From the tenor of the reverend gentleman's remarks it is painfully evident that the benefits of this fund are to be so distributed as to give from $15,000 to $18,000 of the $20,000 coming this year to Georgia schools to the gentleman from Congo. Who hit upon this ingenious plan of distribution is not known, nor can it be considered as reflecting Mr. Peabody's views in his munificent donation, but it is a moral idea and that makes it all right. The negro, the negro, always the negro. It is not enough to have given him liberty, and an even chance; we must lift him up in the nation's arms and put a crown upon his head, and a sceptre in his hand, and make him the white man's king.—Macon (Ga.) Cors. N. Y. Herald.

Prosperity cannot be restored to the South until society there be constructed on a basis of intelligence and property, instead of negro suffrage and negro indolence and ignorance.—Nat. Intel.

J. H. HARRIS AND H. M. CROPPER.

Having waited a sufficient time to hear from Henry M. Cropper, of Philadelphia, and having heard nothing from him, we publish the following statements of J. H. Harris, in his vindication, as a matter of simple justice. Cropper's complaints cannot appear until his character is endorsed and his statements sustained by evidence:

RALEIGH, N. C., Dec. 21st, 1867.

To the Editors of the Sentinel:

GENTLEMEN—My attention has been called to an article which appeared in your paper of the 20th. instant, and to an article in the Progress of the previous day, which seems to have emanated from a statement by one Henry M. Cropper, of Philadelphia, in reference to myself and a young lady, whom this Cropper says is his daughter; all of which I denounce as false and slanderous, from beginning to end.

I shall not allow myself to be involved in a controversy of this kind, and I notice this tissue of falsehoods, not to vindicate my character among those who have known me so long, for no such vindication is necessary; but justice to the unfortunate young lady, for whose character and happiness this man Cropper shows so great a disregard, requires that the facts should be laid before the public.

Having been requested by Mr. Fiske, Superintendent of the Freedmen's Schools in this State, to aid him in obtaining suitable young ladies to teach schools, and being in Philadelphia last winter, I spoke to several on the subject, and among them to Miss Josephine Cropper. Several of them accepted the offer, came out to the State, and are now teaching. This is the only action I have had in the matter. I ask you to publish the following card from the Rev. Mr. Fiske, and I now dismiss the subject not to be noticed again by me.

Very respectfully,
JAS. H. HARRIS.

RALEIGH, N. C. Dec. 26th. 1867.

Being in need of colored teachers to take charge of Freedmen's Schools in this State, I requested Mr. James H. Harris, several months since, to aid me in procuring them. Accordingly, meeting Miss Cropper in Philadelphia last February, with others who were seeking situations as teachers, he suggested that she could find employment in North Carolina. Some months afterwards I procured transportation from Gen'l Howard for Miss C. from Philadelphia to Wake Forest N. C. She commenced her school in the latter place about the first of September and has reported to my office each month since that time. She has been very useful as a teacher. Seems to be well qualified for her position and has given entire satisfaction.

In view of the late publications in our city papers concerning both Mr. Harris and Miss Cropper, it seems to me a simple matter of justice that the above facts should be stated.

ASTONISHING TELEGRAPHIC CIRCUIT.—Sunday evening, one of the operators in the telegraph office, in this city, sitting at the instrument, desired to extend his acquaintance in distant lands, and amused himself as follows: He called New Orleans, and was connected by circuit direct to Washington, and thence to New York, and the compliments of the season (we would say different seasons) passed. Galveston said to New York: "It is pleasant, warm and agreeable, and the ladies, in summer costumes, are enjoying themselves in promenading, and going to church, or driving on the beach."—New York answered: "We have three feet of snow; furs, muffs, rubbers, cloaks, and overcoats, are in necessary demand. For your ice lemonades, we are drinking hot rum punch."

He next called Chicago, and received the account of sundry drunken fights, suicides, and divorce cases. Next he connected with Omaha City and was told that the Pacific Railroad was a few miles further. After that he was put in communication with Salt Lake City and learned that Brigham Young was just marrying his seventy-third wife and that his 106 children were welcoming their new mamma, and that Brigham looked happy as a bridegroom, and as if he was used to it. Then he called Helena in Montana Territory, 550 miles North of Salt Lake and near the head waters of the Missouri, and there learned that a party of miners has just discovered Sir John Franklin's remains near the North Pole beneath 40 feet of snow.

As a fact this latter circuit is the largest which to our knowledge has ever existed in telegraphy; it amounted to this—1300 miles to New York, thence 2500 to Salt Lake City, and 550 more to Helena, Montana Territory, making a perfect circuit of 4350 miles, equal to one seventh the distance around the globe, and the operator says it was no night for talking after all.—Galveston News, Dec. 21.

THE MURDER OF HON. C. S. HAMILTON.—We have to record, with inexpressible sorrow, the news of the tragic fate of Hon. C. S. Hamilton, of the Eighth Congressional District of Ohio. The horrible fatality of death at the hands of his own son, whose insanity had hurried his departure from Washington, is one calculated to excite the deepest emotions of the human heart, and to evoke the most profound sorrow for that most terrible curse—murderous insanity—that can be imagined of all that flesh is heir to. Sad, sad, indeed, is such a fate! But oh! how overpowering is the sorrow that glooms the living relatives of the murdered man; not for him alone, but for that state, worse than death, which pertains to the parricide, and which will be awful in the extreme should reason ever regain its sway over his distracted, torn, and wretched mind. Awful crimes of the kind, now committed upon a prominent public man, are of constant occurrence throughout the country, but the heart of the public is never chilled as in an instance like the present one. How inscrutable are the ways of Providence? A father going home to his family to preserve and save one of his own offspring, and thus to gladden the family hearth on an occasion of general festivity, is suddenly sent into eternity by the frantic hand of the child.—Wash. Express.

ANOTHER MUSICAL INSTRUMENT.—We hear from Paris of a new musical instrument of striking power and sweetness and at the same time of extremely simple construction. It resembles a piano with upright strings, except that the latter are replaced by tuning-forks, which, to strengthen the sound, are arranged between two small tubes, one above and the other below them. The tuning-forks are sounded by hammers and are brought to silence at the proper time by means of dampers. The sounds thus produced, which somewhat resemble those of the harmonium, are exceedingly pure and penetrating. They are very persistent, yet instantly arrested by the use of the dampers. The invention has elicited great admiration. Musical Standard.

A London paper says the plate at Windsor Castle, for the use of her Majesty and the Court, weighs nearly thirty tons, and that its value may be roughly estimated at £3,000 000. It is secured in stone chambers, with vaulted ceilings, which form part of the original buildings, and are thoroughly proof against burglars.

MOUNT VESUVIUS IN MORE INTENSE AND GRAND ERUPTION.

LONDON, Dec. 26.—Despatches received from Naples mention that the eruption of Mount Vesuvius is continually increasing in power and splendor. Immense sheets of white, yellow and crimson flame arise hundreds of feet above the crater, and at night the Bay of Naples is lighted up for miles. Lava is pouring down the mountain side in immense quantities, and large stones are occasionally thrown out from the mouth of the volcano. A deep rumble, like reverberating thunder, is heard from time to time as in the bowels of the earth, and many of the people in the vicinity have left their homes, fearing an earthquake or other calamity. No such eruption has probably occurred in Vesuvius for centuries; and the spectacle is regarded as one of the most magnificent and sublime ever witnessed in nature.

SETTING TYPE BY MACHINERY.—It is one of the probabilities of the future that type setting in the vast printing world will be done solely by machinery, and each failure of the inventions for that purpose but serves to perfect type setting instruments. One of the latest of these which has been brought before the notice of the public is the "Alden type setting and distributing machine," which seems destined to create a revolution in typography. Thus, Irving's tale of "Rip Van Winkle," containing 34 223 ems, was set up and distributed by this machine in six hours and thirty nine minutes, and justified in nine hours and fifty-eight minutes, or about at the rate of 2,974 ems per hour, whereas in an ordinary printing office the matter set up averages less than 900 ems per hour. The great gain in using machinery, however, will not be so much in rapidity as economy. The pamphlet containing the story of "Rip Van Winkle," set up by a young lady, is admirably printed and justified throughout, and if this instrument is as economical as it is apparently practicable, its introduction will be merely a matter of time.—New York World.

NEGRO OPINION OF WHITE RADICALISM.—A correspondent of the Savannah Daily Advertiser says:

"A few nights since, passing a church where freedmen love to congregate, we overheard a conversation which amused us, and may not be uninteresting to our readers.—Sam and Joe were closely seated on the steps, when Sam remarked:

"Joe, why don't you go to de League now like you use to do?"

Says Joe: "De fact is, I don't like de white people trash dat belongs to it. You see dat is 'sciety aaybody can jine, white or colored, and de white folks dat is jined are berry small 'taters, few in a hill, rotten in de middle, pithy at both ends and mighty stringy at dat, and I don't want to have nothin' to do wid 'em."

Sam's hearty response was "dat's de blessed troof."

ATROCIOUS OUTRAGE.—In Rappahannock county, about three miles from Woodville, on the 4th inst., at twelve o'clock at night, a white woman named Jane Deal was brutally outraged and murdered. She lived with a Mr. John Coffman, and there had been a husking match there that night, after which this woman went to the kitchen and in there was murdered with a piece of rail. Suspicion rests heavily on a one armed negro who lived on the same farm, and he will be arrested and held for trial. He does not seem alarmed, but is evidently guilty if reports be true. The woman's head was almost beaten to a jelly and she did not survive long.—Page Valley (Va.) Courier.

ANOTHER DODGE.—The leading Republican journals propose to regard negro suffrage as a vested right. They say it is no longer a question whether the elective franchise shall be conferred on the negroes, but whether it shall be retained. There might be many replies made to this dodge, but it is sufficient to say that the franchise was conferred on the blacks in a despotic and unconstitutional manner, and by a power to which the right of conferring it did not belong. A man has just as much reason for claiming as a vested right a judgment in an inferior court, or by a tribunal which had no jurisdiction of the case, as for anybody to make such a claim for the negroes with regard to suffrage.

A gentleman in Tennessee has recovered $25,000 damages against Gen. J. B. Steedman, who took his property though a loyal man, and imprisoned him, while the U. S. troops were in occupation of Chattanooga.

The Memphis "Avalanche" says there are 20,000 starving negroes in that city, living in filth and rags, who are kept alive only by stealing.

The hair of a copper worker in Buffalo has turned perfectly green.

Comprising Narratives of Personal Adventure, Army Life, Naval Adventure, Home Life, Partisan Daring, Life in the Camp, Field and Hospital, Together with the Songs, Ballads, Anecdotes, and Humorous Incidents of the War for Southern Independence.

There is a certain portion of the war that will never go into the regular histories, nor be embellished in romance or poetry, which is a real part of it, and will, if preserved, convey to succeeding generations a better idea of the spirit of the conflict than many dry reprts or careful narratives of events, and this part may be called the gossip, the fun, the pathos of the war. This illustrates the character of the leaders, the humor of the soldiers, the devotion of women, the bravery of men, the pluck of our heroes, the romance and hardships of the service.

The Valiant and Brave Started, the Picturesque and Dramatic, the Wily and Marvelous, the Tender and Pathetic, and the whole Panorama of the War are here thrillingly portrayed in a masterly manner, at once historical and romantic, rendering it the most ample, unique, brilliant and readable book that the war has called forth.

SENTINEL.

Published in the City of Raleigh, N. C.,

Daily, Semi Weekly and Weekly.

William E. Pell, } Editors
Seaton Gales, }

In view of the scarcity of money, and the severity of the times, the Proprietor of the SENTINEL has determined to reduce the terms of the paper, to commence after the 31st. DECEMBER, next, and to make such improvements in its general character as will commend it to the patronage of an enlightened public.

In POLITICS it will be thoroughly Conservative, advocating, at all times:

A strict observance of the Constitution of the United States, and the harmonious Union of said States;
Obedience to law and the enforcement of order;
The supremacy of the civil over the military, in time of peace;
The equality of the three co-ordinate branches of the government;
The sovereignty of the States over their own internal affairs, in strict conformity to the Constitution;
The maintenance of freedom and justice to all, without distinction of color, but the supremacy of the white race as the governing class;
Opposition to Radicalism in all its phases.

As a NEWS journal, it shall be equal to any.—The SENTINEL is now the only daily in Raleigh, and the only paper in the city which publishes the daily telegraphic dispatches. The principal markets will be regularly published.

Its LITERARY character shall be maintained and improved, by contributions from our best writers.

Finally, the SENTINEL will seek to be the special promoter of the educational, moral and economical interests of the people of North Carolina.

TO OUR PATRONS.

We have a good deal due us, on our books. We need the money at once to carry on our paper. Those who owe us for advertising will arrange to pay us up by the 1st. of January next. The paper will be discontinued, on that day, to all who fail to pay, when called on.

Agents wanted for the "Gray Jackets": Jones Brothers & Co., Publishers, Richmond, Va. This is said to be a most interesting and meritorious work—giving graphic incidents and sketches of the war, and preserving, in durable form, the deeds of valor and heroism of the soldiers of the South.

The 147th. Term of the University of North Carolina will begin on Saturday, Jan. 18. See announcement.

N. C. Family Roe and Cut Herrings: Pulliam, Jones & Co.

RT. REV. THOMAS ATKINSON, Bishop of the Diocese of North Carolina, occupied the pulpit of Grace Church, in Petersburg, on yesterday.

ANOTHER CHANGE.—Messrs. Morriss & Co., Furniture Dealers and Upholsterers, will vacate their present stand, on the 1st. of January, and occupy, next year, the store lately occupied by the Messrs. McKimmon.

FRIENDS OF TEMPERANCE.—There will be a meeting of this Council, this evening, for the election of officers. A full attendance is desired.

THE JAPANESE.—These wonderful performers exhibited to a crowded house, again, on Saturday night. Their feats are truly novel and surprising, and, taken in connection with their strange appearance, national dress and dialect, and unique actions, make the entire entertainment highly attractive. They have gone hence to Richmond, where they will doubtless command immense audiences.

FAYETTEVILLE.—We learn, by a private letter from this town, that the military garrison left on Thursday. The citizens regretted to see them leave, as they had conducted themselves well, under the gentlemanly command of Col. Cogswell, and had been the means of preventing disorder in that section.

LAND SALES.—Several tracts of land have been sold in Wake, within a few days, for cash, at ruinous prices. One tract, we learn, was sold on Friday, near Tucker's Mill, for which $900 was offered before the war, which brought only $107. Col. Dewease, we learn, was the purchaser. The fine farm of W. H. Whitaker, on the Fayetteville road, was sold, on Saturday, before the Court House, for the benefit of securities, and knocked off at $750. The farm was worth $4,000.

MUNICIPAL MATTERS.

RALEIGH, Dec. 26, 1867.

Regular meeting of the Board of Commissioners: Present—Wm. D. Haywood, Esq., Mayor; Messrs. D. L. Royster, J. J. Overby, P. Overby, B. F. Cheatham, J. M. Betts, J. A. Moore and J. D. Royster, Commissioners.

Sundry accounts to the amount of $661.18 were allowed.

Mr. Alvis Sorrell petitioned the Board to reccommend him to the County Court for license to retail spirituous liquors by the small measure; when, on motion of Mr. Moore, the petition was tabled,—it being apparent that it could not be granted by this Board without a palpable violation of Gen. Order No. 32.

On motion of Mr. J. D. Royster, a committee was appointed, consisting of Messrs. J. J. Overby, J. M. Betts, and J. A. Moore, to confer with General Canby and request him to authorize the Board of Commissioners to grant applications for license to retail spirituous liquors.

Mr. Parker Overby petitioned the Board to be recommended for license to retail spirituous liquors. Rejected.

Mr. W. W. Woodell proposed to the Board to put the City clock in repair and keep it so for twelve months, for the sum of $100; and, on motion of Mr. J. D. Royster, it was laid on the table.

The following Ordinance was read and adopted:

Be it ordained by the Commissioners of the City of Raleigh, That any female who shall engage in what is commonly known as "street-walking," or who shall, in the streets, squares or other public places in the city, be guilty of lewd or lascivious carriage or behavior, or shall in such street, square or public place entice, allure or persuade, or endeavor to entice, allure or persuade others to engage in such lewd or lascivious carriage or behavior, whether in such public places as aforesaid or elsewhere, or who shall, in any such public places, use any obscene, profane, lewd or lascivious language or gesture, shall, for each offence, forfeit and pay to the use of the city $20.

Any person aiding, abetting, or conniving at any such lewd or lascivious carriage or behavior, or such profane, obscene, lewd or lascivious language or gesture, shall for each offence forfeit a like sum.

Provided, however, That the Mayor shall have power to remit, for good cause shown, any portion of such penalty, so as not to reduce the same below the sum of $5.

The Sexton returned his annual report of deaths in the city for the year 1867, as follows:

White males,	32
" females,	22
Colored males,	39
" females	34
	127

On motion of Mr. D. L. Royster, Mr. Holt was re appointed Sexton for 1868.

On motion of Mr. J. D. Royster, ordered that checks issue to the extra Police, on the return of accounts by the Chief of Police.

On motion, the Board adjourned until to-morrow morning, 10 o'clock.

RALEIGH, Dec. 27, 1867.

The Board met this morning, pursuant to adjournment:

Present—Wm. D. Haywood, Esq., Mayor; Messrs. R. H. Battle, D. L. Royster, J. A. Moore, J. J. Overby, J. D. Royster, J. M. Betts, and B. F. Cheatham, Commissioners.

On motion, Messrs. Moore, Cheatham and Betts were appointed a committee to audit the accounts of the City Treasurer for 1867.

An account of Messrs. Nichols, Gorman and Neathery, for Printing, for $17,50, was allowed.

Mr. Joseph petitioned the Board to be recommended to the County Court, to have a license to retail liquors by the small measure.

On motion, the application of Mr. Joseph was laid over to some subsequent meeting.

On motion, the Board adjourned.

J. J. CHRISTOPHERS, Clerk.

THE STAVE BUSINESS.—We alluded, the other day, to the profits of the stave business. We learn that a company has been getting, for some time, white oak pipe and hogshead staves, near the Railroad, between the Catawba River and Morganton, which are sent by Railroad to Norfolk and shipped to Europe, and the company find it a profitable business. Why may not our people, in this region, do the same?

DEATH OF GEN. FORREST'S MOTHER.—Mrs. Miriam Luxton, mother of Gen. N. B. Forrest, died at Navasota, Texas, on the 15th inst., at the age of 64 years. She was a native of Marshall county, Tennessee, and was the mother of fifteen children. We learn these particulars from the Memphis Avalanche.

In Presidential making circles it is said that the friends of Chief Justice Chase are determined, should they not carry the Chicago Convention with the aid of delegates from the ten reconstructed States, to withdraw, and to have a new Convention at St. Louis, which they can control.

Life Insurance continues to occupy the most serious consideration of the heads of families, who, by the casualties of war, short crops and short price of Cotton, have been deprived of the support they relied upon, in case of death for their dependents; and the question with them is, "Which is the OLDEST, SAFEST, LARGEST, MOST ECONOMICAL and RELIABLE COMPANY represented in North Carolina?" I unhesitatingly assure them that I have indisputable evidence that the CONNECTICUT MUTUAL LIFE INSURANCE Co. is, without doubt, prepared to prove, from the most trustworthy and authentic official reports, that she has a larger amount of assetts than all other Companies in this State combined; that for eighteen years she has decared an average of fifty per cent dividend; for thirteen years her interest on investment has exceeded her losses; and her vast business is conducted at a much less expense.

All she makes is shared by the assured. No Stockholder receives the lion's share of the profits, and no Company pays its losses more promptly. Last year (1866) she paid to widows and orphans upwards of a Million of Dollars. Therefore, apply at once to F. F. PESCUD, Agt., Raleigh, N. C.

SALES OF REAL ESTATE, &c.

Valuable Property For Sale.

BY VIRTUE OF A DEED OF TRUST executed to me, by the late Wm. F. Collins, I will sell, on Monday, the 13th day of January, 1868, to the highest bidder, at the Court House door in Warrenton, the following valuable property:

The Tract of Land on which the late Wm. F. Collins resided, at the time of his death, situated in Warren County, on the Williamsboro' Road, two (2) miles from Ridgeway Depot, on the R. & G. R. R., and adjoining the lands of Jno. E. Jones, B. M. Collins and others, containing

ONE HUNDRED AND SEVENTY-TWO (172) ACRES.

On this Tract are situated the celebrated RIDGEWAY MILLS, which are not surpassed in the manufacture of Flour by any in the State. The Mills are in first-rate running order.

There are on the premises a Dwelling House, the necessary out-houses, barns, stables &c., for conducting a farm. The land is under good fences and in a high state of cultivation, about one-half the tract being in original woods, convenient to the House and Mill.

There is also a fine young Orchard of Apple and Peach trees, well selected, and several young vines of the Scuppernong Grape.

Persons wishing to purchase would do well to examine the property before the sale.

Terms made known on day of sale.

Valuable Lands and Mills for Sale.

PURSUANT TO A DECREE OF THE COURT of Equity for Johnston County at Fall Term, 1867, I shall, on Saturday the 18th day of January next, on the premises, proceed to sell, at public sale, that valuable property, near Boon Hill, in said County, known as consisting of fifteen hundred and ninety-five acres of Land, lying near the North Carolina Railroad, and within one and a half miles of Boon Hill Depot.

The said lands are the first quality of Cotton lands. About 300 acres are cleared, and have been in cultivation. The rest is in primitive forest, and is well timbered, although a considerable quantity of Pine Timber has been cut off.

The improvements consist of an excellent Saw Mill, with a forty-two inch circular saw run by a Jonvais Turbine Wheel, which, for beauty of work and quickness of cutting, is unsurpassed.—There is also a tram road from the Mill to the Railroad, where there is a turnout. Also a Grist Mill, which will grind 60 bushels of corn per day. Also a Store and Office, a Blacksmith Shop, and four houses for operatives, and beautifully situated on a hill, containing eight rooms, to which are attached all necessary outhouses and Stables, with two Gardens, one of which contains one of the largest and finest Scuppernong Arbors in the State.

The water on the place is excellent, and it is one of the healthiest locations in the low country.

TERMS OF SALE:

One hundred and fifty dollars cash; four thousand two hundred and fifty dollars on the 4th Monday in March, 1868, and notes at six and twelve months from the day of sale, bearing interest. For the balance, bonds with approved security will be required, and the title retained until the purchase money is paid. Possession given on the first day of February, 1868.

DAILY SENTINEL.

MONDAY, DECEMBER 30, 1867.

THE NIGHT AFTER CHRISTMAS.

'Twas the night after Christmas, when all through the house
Every creature was stirring, and still as a mouse.
Those stockings so lately St. Nicholas' care
Were emptied of all that was eatable there.
The darlings had duly been tucked in their beds,
With very full stomachs, and pattis in their heads.

I was dozing away in my new cotton cap,
And Nancy was rather far gone in a nap.
When out in the nursery arose such a clatter,
I sprang from my sleep, crying, "What is the matter?"
I flew to each bedside—still half in a doze—
Bare open the curtains and threw off the clothes.
While the light of the taper served clearly to show
The piteous plight of those objects below;
For what to the fond father's eyes should appear,
But the little pale face of each sick little dear;
For each pet that had crammed itself full as a tick,
I knew in a moment now felt like old Nick.

Their pulses were rapid, their breathings the same,
What their stomachs rejected I'll mention by name—
Now Turkey, now Stuffing, Plum Pudding, of course,
And Custards, and Crullers, and Cranberry Sauce;
Before outraged nature all went to the wall,
Yes, Lollypops, Pinpincotie, Dinner and all,
Like pellets, which urchins from pop-guns let fly,
Went figs, nuts, and raisins, jam, jelly, and pie,
Till each error of diet was brought to my view,
To the shame of Mamma and Santa Claus too.

I turned from the sight, to my bed room stepped back,
And brought out a vial marked "Pulv. Ipecac."
When my Nancy exclaimed—for their sufferings shocked her—
"Don't you think you had better, love, run for the doctor?"
I ran—and was scarcely back under my roof,
When I heard the sharp clatter of old Jalap's hoof;
I might say that I hardly had turned myself round,
When the Doctor came into the room with a bound.
He was covered with mud from his head to his feet,
And the suit he had on was his very worst suit;
He half hardly had time to put that on his back,
And he looked like a Falstaff half huddled with sack.
His eyes, how they twinkled! Had the Doctor got merry?
His cheeks looked like Port and his breath smelt of sherry;
He hadn't been shaved for a fortnight or so,
And the beard on his chin wasn't white as the snow.

But inspecting their tongues, in despite of their teeth,
And drawing his watch from his waistcoat beneath,
He felt of each pulse, saying, "each little belly
Must get rid"—here he laughed—"of the rest of that jelly."
I gazed on each chubby, plump, sick little elf,
And groaned when he said so, in spite of myself,
But a wink of his eye, when he physicked our Fred,
Soon gave me to know I had nothing to dread
He didn't prescribe, but went straightway to work
And dosed all the rest—gave his trowers a jerk,
And, adding directions while blowing his nose,
He buttoned his coat, from his chair he arose,
Then jumped in his gig, gave old Jalap a whistle,
And Jalap dashed off, as if pricked by a thistle,
But the Doctor exclaimed ere he drove out of sight,
"They'll be well by to-morrow—good night! Jones—good night!"

"DE BOTTOM RAIL ON "TOP."

"Brick Pomeroy" is a violent partisan, but he gets off some inimitable burlesques. We think his "First Experience in Skating" will compare in broad humor with any comic writing that has been done in this country. In a late issue of his paper he burlesques a scene in the Alabama Convention under the heading of "De Bottom Rail on Top." Julius Cæsar Augustus Mark Antony Dionysius Squash has the floor, and holds forth as follows:

"Mistur Speaker and Fellow Niggers: I hab listumed pashuntly for de consecutive days what hab introvened sense we cum from de ballot-boxes of a illustrus constituenshee—to Brudders Bingham, and Griffin, and Keffer, and de udder respekted white niggirs, and longed for de opportunity to get up and shake myself loose for de salvation ob de Lord and de glory ob de eight and forty tousand what hab trabled to Caneun! And here I is—am you gazin' at me?

Niggers and Mistur Speaker, dere hab been somefin said in some of de nooseppers about de bottom rail bein' on top!—Now, who am de bottum rail? Eh! Umah! Dey means us, niggers, de down-trodden race, who, bress the Lord and Massa Linkum, am on top! And we's a gwin' to stay dar till Gabriel sits on de saints' roost, and blows his horn!

Whar am we now? Cast your deluded gaze about dis room. Five years ago we was a totin' cotton, blackin' boots, and cuttin' har! Now,—ki—we and dese Yankee white trash is makin' laws, for in de language of Hoss Greeley, de bottom rail am on top!

Niggers is sumbody and de d—m rebbils hab got to lay low or dey cotch hell! We'se gwin' to occupy de land—we'se gwin' to hab our forty acres land and a par of mules—we'se gwin' to play gempium, and debbils has got to furnish de spondulix—dat's what's de matter, for de bottom rail am on top!

De white trash is played out—didn't we sabe de country? When Massa Jeff. was a standin' on A-bra-ham's stoop a kickin' de doah and threatenin' to bust his horn, didn't us collered men put on dem blue clo's and dose ar brass buttons—oh, no, I guess not—an' didn't we sabe de Union an' windicate de flag—dat's why de bottum rail am on top!

Brutus Gumbo Sardanapulus Crow—I rise to a pint of odor!

The Speaker—State your pint, Mr. Crow.

Crow—Theodosious Cassius Switchell has put his clamps on free ob my marbles—and——

Switchell—Go 'way you brack raskil—tell me I hook your marvles, I punch you in de jaw—what I do wid yore marvels,—ain't I on a Kom-mit-tee to draff a bill uv rights! Say marvels to me I brake your banjo ober you conck!

The Speaker—Gentlemen will please preserve order, and allow Mr. Squash to proceed.

Squash—I am disgusted wid you; and I 'clar 'fore God dar's dose two mokes from Eufaula and Mobeel sound' asleep, while dat ar no-account nigger from Tuscaloosa stands by de window ticklin' his shin wid his heel! Don't you know nuffin'!—Um-h-h! But I disgust sich mizzibul niggers, and perceed.

We intend to do de wotin'; to go to Congress; to be Gubners and justices ob de peais; to be sojers wid brass buttons and big swords, like Boss Grant and Sherman, and we is goin' to West Pint and 'Napolis—to ride in kars, and go to schools and churches wid de white trash, for de bottem rail am on top!

And we'se gwine to 'bolish 'Hio, Minnie Sota, and Kansas, for refusin' to gib our brudders suffrage—and we'se gwine to 'bolish Kopperheds—and squelch de Lay Crosseways Democrat, and de Mobeel Tribune, and we's gwine to have a new white wife ebery week—and we'se gwine to kill de rebbils—because dey is white—an' hab clam soup an' pigs' feet ebery night, for de bottum rail am on top!

An' dat ar Ariel feller what says we niggers am beastuts, widout souls, we'll send him a reelin' and a rockin' 'fore he can twinkle dat eye, for ain't "Babylon fallen;" aint we got all de sour apple; don't de fasenatin' ladies uv de cullered swashun light dis reseptickle uv wisdum and intelligense wid de perfoom uv dar oilfactory sweetness—and—and—and de bottom rail am on top.

Mistur Cheerman—I obserb dat my suggesshun dat de picturegram ob Washington be turned upside down, an' de likeness ob de greatust men our country has projuiced—Nat Turner, Esq., and Hon. Fred. Douglas—be hung upon dese walls, has been circumplied wid. Glory to Gideon dat I hab libed to see de day when the bottom rail am on top!

Now, Crow, it am de sentimum ob de House dat you take your old cremona, while Brudder Switchell leads off wid our gran' old Linkum walk around! Clar away dem desks—white trash make a ring—sisters in de gallery jine! Tune her up ole 'Simmons, an' let your unkle shout! Now, den, altogeder, for, Bress de Lam', de bottom rail am on top!

That which has made this Company such a favorite and so popular, is the low rate and prompt payment of all demands.
